

What is it?

Target: Listening comprehension and speaking

The children form a circle: Several cards (see next page) are passed on whilst making the relevant sounds and saying the English terms. The children then all turn round and the teacher makes one of the sounds. The children must then say the object to which the sound belongs.

