There are several different forms used when talking about the future. This work sheet focuses on the use of "will": "will" remains the same for each person "will" can be shortened to "´ll" when used in conjunction with another word. I´ll be in the office tomorrow. He´ll play tennis next week. We´ll win the game. For negations you use "won´t". "Will not" is only used when something should be emphasised. I won´t be in the office tomorrow. He won´t play tennis next week. We won´t win the game.
